

Clark's Method: Problem 1

1

2

The diagram shows two rows of 12 squares each. The top row consists of 8 gray squares followed by 4 black squares. The bottom row consists of 5 gray squares, 3 black squares, and 4 gray squares.

3

A diagram showing two rows of 12 squares each. The top row has 6 gray squares followed by 6 black squares. The bottom row has 6 black squares followed by 6 gray squares. A purple bracket on the left groups the two rows together.

List of known haps.